

THE COMMUNIST CRIMES

Individual and State Responsibility

9-10 November 2020
International Scientific Conference organized by the Justice Institute

THE COMMUNIST CRIMES – INDIVIDUAL AND STATE RESPONSIBILITY

Online Conference organized by the Justice Institute

www.responsibilityforcommunistcrimes.pl

The Time Zone of the Conference is CET.

MONDAY 9TH NOVEMBER 2020

9.00-9.15 Opening ceremony chaired by Patrycja Grzebyk

Speakers: Marcin Wielec & Bartłomiej Oręziak (Justice Institute)

9.15 -10.45 The Communist Crimes - the World (part I) chaired by Łukasz Adamski

Gleb Bogush

Institutionalisation of Historical Revisionism in Russia?

Ilya Nuzov

International Criminal Responsibility of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union: An Unattainable Dream?

George Forji Amin

Between Promise and Peril: Pashukanis, Stalin, Commodity exchange theory of Law and The Great Purge

Jia Wang

How A Communist Revolution Was Tried in Court? The Challenges Posed by the Trial of Former Khmer Rouge Leaders at the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia

11.00-12.30 The Communist Crimes - the World (part II)
chaired by Przemysław Saganek

Dorina Ndreka

Dilemmas in using international law for pursuing communist crimes - the Albanian case

Tamas Hoffman

The Difficulties of Prosecuting Communist Crimes - The Biszku Case

Aleksander Gubrynowicz

Between Western tradition and Soviet doctrine: Some remarks on international law's application by the Hungarian People Courts

14.00-15.30 The Communist Crimes - the World (part III)
chaired by Veronika Bílková

Michał Górski

Reactivation of communist party responsible for establishment of totalitarian regime not so manifestly unfounded? Remarks based on ECtHR judgment on Ignatencu and Romanian Communist Party (PCR) v. Romania

Kamil Strzępek

The communist crime - general remarks in light of the case K.-H. W v. Germany

TUESDAY 10TH NOVEMBER 2020

9.00-10.45 The Communist Crimes in Poland (part I) chaired by Michał Balcerzak

Hanna Kuczyńska

Criminal responsibility of the Polish Communist Party (PZPR) for so-called communist crimes'

Karolina Wierczyńska

International crimes before the national courts in the light of Polish experience

Tomasz Lachowski

Legislative changes on statutory limitations in reference to communist crimes and transformation of model of settlement with communist past in Poland after 2015

Maciej Perkowski

Arkadiusz Waszkiewicz

Victims of the New Order - Polish Underground in 1944-1963 in light of International law

11.00-12.30 The Communist Crimes in Poland (part I)
chaired by Aleksandra Mężykowska

Krzysztof Masło

Polish project to establish an international tribunal for trial of communist crimes

Dawid Zdrójkowski

Criminal proceeding in case of Adam Karol Tyczyński as an example of not judged judicial crime

Sylwia A. Karowicz-Bienias

Running away from Themis - powerlessness of Polish authorities concerning extradition of Stefan Michnik

Marta Paszek

Crime and no punishment. The responsibility of military judges for communist judicial crimes as illustrated by the example of the case of Anna Krużotek

12.30 Closure of the Conference